Low-Income Housing Credit Disaster Relief Notices DR 4779 and DR 4784

The President issued major disaster declarations for several Iowa counties because of the devastation caused by recent severe weather events. Because of the widespread damage to housing caused by this severe weather event, the Internal Revenue Service has determined that state housing agencies may provide approval to project owners in their respective states to provide temporary emergency housing for displaced individuals in accordance with these notices.

Please see the notices below for more information and you may find all necessary forms required for you to participate in the emergency housing relief efforts of persons displaced by this disaster on the IFA website.
